Fiscal Year 2012 Giving Highlights

As Olin’s first decade comes to an end, we reflect on all that makes Olin special. We thank every member of the Olin community whose financial and volunteer support enabled Olin to finish Decade One filled with rapid and continual educational innovation as well as record-breaking fundraising results. Highlights from FY2011-12 include the following:

Record High Donation Levels Raising over $1.7M:

- Gifts totaled $1,745,000 – representing a 30% increase in dollars over FY11.
- Alumni donations have increased in dollars by 50% since FY11.

Continued Outstanding Levels of Olin Alumni and Parent Participation:

- 78% of Alumni made a FY12 gift – last year this was the highest alumni participation rate* in the country.
- Current Parents, whose children are members of the Classes of 2012-2015, reached an extraordinary level of participation at 69%.
- Alumni Parents, whose children are members of the Classes of 2006-2011, achieved 49% participation
- Olin’s combined parent participation rate of 57% is the highest among all higher education institutions*.

Increased Scholarship Support Makes Olin Possible!

- Financial commitments to Olin’s need-based and merit scholarships continue to have a tremendous impact on our students. Most importantly, this support gives them one less worry when choosing a college.
- During the last fiscal year, Olin
  - awarded 35 need-based and merit scholarships;
  - raised $115,000 in new multi-year pledges to support scholarships; and
  - created 5 new donor-funded named scholarships including the first scholarship through our new Corporate Partnerships Program.

Impact through Innovative Initiatives:

Philanthropic gifts provided critical support for many important initiatives, including:

- The Innovation Funding Program, which enables faculty to continuously improve the Olin curriculum as well as support Olin’s broader goal to catalyze change in engineering education. In 2012, high priority was given to the development of team-taught courses that bridge disciplines -- for example, science and the arts -- and projects to improve integration among existing courses. Nine projects were funded involving 15 faculty and a large number of students, including a new course on the physics of music and a course integrating history and environmental science, co-taught by Olin and Wellesley faculty. Funding was provided to continue the implementation of Olin’s writing-across-the-curriculum initiative and a new math sequence: Linearity I and II. New content and assessment tools were also developed for SCOPE.

- Initiative for Innovation in Engineering Education (I2E2) programs are facilitating faculty exchange opportunities and other collaborative co-design projects to help foster curricular change at other colleges and universities. This year, Olin continued its partnership with the microprocessor company AMD, which featured Olin in its new educational initiative, NextGen Engineer.

Marjorie Milas Library Fund Gives Students Access to the Best Books:

- The Marjorie Milas Library Fund has been used to acquire some of the best design and visualization books of 2012, as well as new sustainable material samples. The books are highlighted within Olin’s Digital Repository (http://digitalcommons.olin.edu/mm_fund/). The samples are photographed, added to an online database, and then displayed in the lower level of the library. Design is central to the Olin curriculum, and these materials are used for both project work and for inspiration. Future additions of innovative materials around design and the arts as well as the social sciences and pedagogy will continue to strengthen the library’s collections and its support of the campus curriculum.

“Generous people like you make Olin possible! Thank you for the scholarship. Without the scholarship I would not have come to Olin. It turned out to be the best decision I have ever made.”

“Once again, thank you so much for generously donating to Olin; it really does make a difference in the lives of students.”

Competitive Foundation Grants Received Totaling $1.6M+:

Olin received significant competitive grants surpassing $1.6M in fiscal year 2012 from the Henry Luce Foundation, the Argosy Foundation, the George Link Jr. Foundation, and the Davis Educational Foundation.

- Argosy Faculty Exchange: The Argosy Foundation, established by Boston Scientific's founder, John Abele, has made a $1.3M grant to help Olin create partnerships with other engineering schools committed to educational change. Through this faculty exchange program, faculty from partner schools will pursue year-long residencies at Olin, providing them with the time, space and support for planning transformative activities at their home campuses.

- Clare Boothe Luce Research Scholars Program: Olin was awarded a competitive grant from the Henry Luce Foundation to launch the Clare Boothe Luce Research Scholars program. This three-year program will support year-long research experiences at Olin for up to 24 women in engineering and the physical sciences. Clare Boothe Luce (1903-1987) enjoyed a long and varied career as a journalist, playwright, congresswoman, ambassador, and presidential advisor. She established this program to encourage women to enter, study, graduate and teach in fields where they continue to be extremely underrepresented: the sciences and engineering. The single largest private source of funding for women in science and engineering, the Clare Boothe Luce Program has thus far recognized and supported more than 1,550 women at every level of higher education.

Alumni Class Gifts Surpassed $67,000:

Increased alumni donations made a dramatic impact on campus life through gifts totaling over $67,000 to the Summer Book Program, Green Initiatives, Sports and Recreation, Stock Room, Passionate Pursuits, and Project-based Curriculum funds.

- Updates on Progress from Two of Our Alumni Class Gifts:
  In FY12 the Class of 2006 more than doubled their donations to their class gift, the Summer Book Program. As they celebrated their five-year reunion, they voted to continue supporting this program until it is fully funded by their ten-year reunion. Janet Tsai ’06 joined the Summer Book Program Advisory Committee this fiscal year.

  Before graduating, the Class of 2012 established a fund to endow and support a collection of tools to be "checked out" and used at Olin College. It is their wish that the gift fund and the future endowment support expansion of the Tools Collection initiative by providing funds to purchase community tools which Olin students could access and use at any time for class or personal projects. While virtually half of the class made a pledge upon graduation, nearly half of those were designated to their class gift. Additional class gift updates can be found on the Alumni Giving site of Olin’s webpage (www.olin.edu).

All of these FY12 results illustrate the tremendous support of the Olin community for the College’s mission and ongoing activities. Thank you for making an impact on Olin’s continued success!

Volunteer Recognition
Volunteering from July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2012

Olin is deeply grateful for our many volunteers and the vital roles they play in the success of the College. Leading on our strategic plan, helping out on our caller programs, hosting summer parties for incoming students, planning reunion and other events around the country are just a few of the many areas that our Olin family members help make Olin great. Below is a list of our volunteers from fiscal year 2012. Although it is impossible to list every volunteer in their respective roles, please know that each and every one of you is deeply appreciated for your time, talent, and labor on behalf of Olin. Thank you for all you do!

Wego Wang

We tried to remember all of our wonderful volunteers, but please accept our apology if we failed to include you in our volunteer listing.

Thank you all for your continued support of Olin!

Thank you to each and every one of our faculty and staff members who keep pushing the College to reach new heights!

Special thanks to Michael Maloney, our photographer, for capturing all of our Olin moments.
